Emerging From Adversity - Art Is In Our Nature

The Arts have been particularly adversely affected by the world-wide pandemic. The chosen theme for this exhibition, “Emerging from Adversity - Art Is In Our Nature”, provides an opportunity for our local community of artists/artisans to create and exhibit works that express their experiences overcoming the disruptions and adversity of COVID while celebrating our communities unique artistic nature. This exhibition is an opportunity to share inspiration and newly formed ideas resulting from the experience of required isolation imposed on us by the pandemic. The exhibition is open to all mediums, encouraging a wide range of diverse expressions of “Emerging from Adversity - Art Is In Our Nature”.

The Rossland Arts Centre Society is calling for submissions of artworks to be printed on our brand merchandise; totes, hats, and stickers. Six artists from the exhibition will be selected by a jury to have their work printed onto Rossland Arts Centre merchandise. The artists chosen will have their work included in the exhibition and will also be paid licensing fees (as established by CARFAC) to license the use of an image of their artwork on merchandise. These products will be sold to raise funds for the creation of the Rossland Arts Centre.
